

STREET PAVING (From Page One)

After much careful study by members of the City Planning Commission, an Arterial Plan of eight streets that will serve the entire city has been worked out. These are not part of the plan for neighborhood streets which is already in progress with the individual property owners helping to finance the streets directly affecting them, but these major arteries are part of a master plan of street improvement that will benefit everyone living in Hope or visiting our community.

Months of planning and much consideration of various suggestions have gone into the program worked out by the Commission. From an original plan of 12 streets, the number has been reduced to eight to meet expense requirements. The cost of the Arterial Plan will be $765,000 and the methods for obtaining revenue for it will appear on the ballot.

The citizens of Hope will be able to vote for or against any or all of these methods: bonds, automobile tax, or parking meter revenue. The advantages of street improvement are many, ranging from industry attraction to saving on car depreciation.

The Hope Rotary Club went on record as supporting the Arterial Plan for street improvement as outlined by City Manager and Rotarian Garland Medders. Club President Clyde Fouse welcomed the large group of members and guests. They included City Officials, Leonard Ellis and Donal Parker; Planning Commission members, Arch Wylie, chairman, W. D. Flowers, Jr., E. P. Young, Jr., Robert Dennis, James McLarty; Ted Bonner, Little Rock; Delbert Copeland, Sequatchie, Tenn.; T. C. Cranford, Hope; and A. Z. C. Tony McLarty, Vandenberg AFB, Calif.

Parcelpost Schedule Now 6 Days

Postmaster Brannan today announced that parcel post deliveries in Hope were expanded from five to six days a week as of July 15.

The boundaries of the expanded service include the whole city. This is in line with a recent directive from Postmaster General Lawrence F. O'Brien following the signing of the Post Office Department appropriation bill by President Johnson. The legislation contains an $8.5 million item for restoration of the six-day a week delivery which had been cut back in May 1964 as an economy measure.

Nearly 5000 cities are affected, Postmaster Brannan said. The Hope postal official noted that the improved service will remove an inequity for many business and residential routes.

Postal customers served by "motorized" letter carriers have been receiving six-day deliveries all along. They were not covered by the 1964 cut back inasmuch as carriers on vehicles can deliver parcels of any size. Customers living on routes serviced by foot carriers have received larger parcels from a five-day a week parcel post route covered by a truck. Carriers on foot only deliver small packages.

Another question from an interested citizen concerning the Hope street program: "What is the meaning of all those flags flying along South Grady street in the Southland Heights area?" Signed: Curious.

Dear Curious: These are progressive people out that way who take pride in home ownership. They are about to get new pavement for their street, plus curb and gutter under the city's standing offer of $1.50 per running foot for each property owner. Residents on another street, California, have deposited their money at City Hall for the same deal and flags will be flying there, too. The city has a second deal, blacktop only for 75 cents per running foot. (Mail your questions concerning the proposed Hope street program to Around Town Editor . . . we'll get the answer for you.)

Three Ouachita Baptist University students of Hope have been awarded scholarships.

John S. Andrews received the J. C. and Nancy Patterson Scholarship of $150, and a Deserving Student Scholarship of $250. The funds for the Patterson Scholarship is given by the Pattersons of Searcy to "make it possible for outstanding young people to go to Ouachita at as low a cost as that charged at state schools."

Andrews is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Andy Andrews. Janice Sue Harper was awarded a Deserving Student Scholarship of $250. She is the daughter of Mrs. D. F. Harper of 904 East 5th Street.

She's Still 'Just Sylvia' Says Beauty

MIAMI BEACH, Fla. (AP) — Sylvia Hitchcock hopes that when her reign ends and she returns to school her classmates will forget she was Miss Universe.

"I'd rather be Sylvia," said the stunning 21-year-old brunette whose admirers say her smile convinced the judges she was the loveliest of the 56 contestants. She will be a senior when she returns to the University of Alabama after her reign.

Sylvia, whose 5-foot-7½ inches are packed nicely into a 35½-24½-36½ frame, started life as a loser in beauty contests. She was the runnerup in a "Miss Smile" contest, a finalist in a teen-age beauty contest and usually a member of the court in high school beauty contests.

Received larger parcels from a five-day a week parcel post route covered by a truck. Carriers on foot only deliver small packages.

of 913 South Laurel, was also awarded a Deserving Student Scholarship.

All three students are 1965 graduates of Hope High School.

Mrs. Wanda Cox, Chief Clerk of Selective Service Local Board No. 29, underwent surgery last Friday at the Memorial Hospital. During her period of recuperation the "draft board" will be handled by Mrs. Beddie Hopson of Hope, ably assisted several days per week by Mrs. Grace Baxter, of Texarkana, a long-time employee of the Selective Service.

The large oak trees on the parking lot in the new shopping center have been sealed with asphalt and can't get moisture to survive. It is hoped by many that permission will be granted to remove the asphalt and, thus, save the trees. An asphalt jungle isn't very pretty, in whatever sense you speak of it.

Bella Vista Refused Him, Negro Says

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — Morton Gitelman of Fayetteville, a member of the Arkansas Advisory Committee to the U.S. Commission on Civil Rights, has forwarded to Washington a complaint filed by Alonzo Hodge of Shreveport, La.

Hodge, a Negro, contends that he was denied admittance to Bella Vista Village, a northwest Arkansas vacation - retirement resort, after winning a three-day, expense-paid vacation there in a drawing.

He said he had received several letters of welcome to the resort after the drawing, and that his reservations had been confirmed for July 10-12.

When he got there, he said, he was given $100 for expenses and told that he would have to stay at a motel, because there were no vacancies at the resort. Bella Vista officials declined comment.

$2,000 in scholarships, plus a wardrobe worth almost $2,000. She begins her duties today with a trip to Little Rock, and she plans to attend the Miss Mississippi Pageant Tuesday.

The Miss America Pageant starts Sept. 4 at Atlantic City. Miss Evans, who said she received a "freckle kit" as a gift from her parents last Christmas but didn't need it, hiked her dress at one point in the interview and pulled down a red and white garter on her leg.

Given to her by Miss Arkansas Pageant Emcee Bob Evans (no relation), it had a button attached that said: "See Arkansas First."

"There is a warmth and charm about this girl that makes her real comfortable," said Mrs. O. M. Young of Hot Springs, her official chaperone. Miss Evans did a speech, song and dance interpretation of "Mama" as her talent number here, but she says that probably will be changed "quite a bit" before the Miss America competition.

The Ouachita cheerleader studied flamenco and castanets for a week to 10 days during two summers at Acapulco, Mexico, while she was in high school, but said she didn't know whether her Miss America talent would have a Spanish flair.

Miss Evans hopes to do graduate work in political science at the University of Arkansas, and she would like eventually to work at the United Nations or in Washington. She says she has no political party preference.

Her foster father was here Sunday, although he is chairman of an International Brotherhood of Railroad Engineers local that was holding a strategy session in Little Rock because of the machinists strike against the railroads.

She said he told her, "Punk, I guess you know you're pretty special to take me away from all of that."

Despite her size, Miss Evans said she usually ate only one meal a day. She said she wasn't hungry on the day of the pageant finals, but that she ate a jar of honey because she had been told she needed something to keep up her strength.

Will she take a good-luck charm to Atlantic City? "The only good luck charm I have is my Bible," she said, "and it definitely will go."

Million Pound Bombs Dropped

SAIGON (AP) — Giant American B52 Stratofortresses unloaded close to a million pounds of bombs on five major Communist concentration areas in South Vietnam Sunday night and today.

The heavy raids were scattered from the Mekong Delta to the northern provinces just below the demilitarized zone. They included a strike at the infiltration route used by Red troops entering the central highlands, where a Communist offensive is threatened.

The air war over North and South Vietnam cost two more American planes, but both pilots were rescued, U.S. commanders said.

A Navy Skyhawk jet was downed by ground fire somewhere between the Hanoi area and Thanh Hoa. It was the 160th U.S. combat plane announced lost over North Vietnam. The pilot remained hidden overnight and was lifted out by helicopter this morning, a spokesman said.

The second loss was an Air Force F100 jet downed Saturday by ground fire from a Communist stronghold in South Vietnam's War Zone C, near the Cambodian border. It was the 194th U.S. combat plane reported lost to enemy fire in South Vietnam.

Only light and scattered ground fighting was reported. Operation Hickory II, a three-day U.S. and South Vietnamese sweep to clear out North Vietnamese troops southwest of the much-battered Marine post at Con Thien, ended with less than 100 enemy reported killed.

One North Vietnamese regiment of about 2,500 men was reported south of Con Thien, but after three days of combing the area, U.S. Marines announced they had killed 57 Communists and captured 19 weapons while the South Vietnamese said they killed 35. Marine losses were 4 killed and 99 wounded. The South Vietnamese said their casualties were light.

Sixty miles southwest of Con Thien, the Marines ended Operation Crockett, a two-month drive in the Khe Sanh area close to the Laotian border. The Marines reported killing 206 enemy troops against 52 Leathernecks killed and 255 wounded in the operation, launched May 13.

In the raids North Vietnam, Navy pilots from the carrier Oriskany spotted a nest of camouflaged Communist torpedo boats Sunday along the coast near Thanh Hoa. The Skyhawk pilots reported damaging at least two of the rarely sighted North Vietnamese naval craft.

Headquarters said heavy weather over North Vietnam limited Sunday's 100 missions to strikes in the panhandle extending south from Hanoi to the 17th Parallel. Carrier jets took the upper half and Air Force pilots from Thailand raked the southern supply network, including the Mu Gia pass which funnels supplies to the Ho Chi Minh trail and thence to South Vietnam.

Chief deputy Harvell Endinger confirmed Mame's report that the fire flashed through the barracks when the fluorescent light, torn from the ceiling, touched off escaping gas. Endinger said the fight went from one end of the barracks to the other, but couldn't say how many persons were involved.

The victims worked on road crews during the day and were quartered at Road Camp 12 each night. The prison site is eight miles east of Jay, a farming community of about 5,000

3 Die in Highway Accidents

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
Traffic accidents claimed three lives in Arkansas during the weekend period from 6 p.m. Friday until midnight Sunday.

Dead are Ethel Robinson, 66, of Kilmichael, Miss.; Linda Butts, 9, of Chicago, and Robert H. McLaughlin, 54, of Little Rock.

State Trooper Gilbert Mann said Mrs. Robinson and the Butts child were among six persons in a car that left Interstate 55 Saturday, careened off a bridge railing and skidded 11 feet before crashing into the wall of a concrete drainage ditch about six miles south of Blytheville.

Mann said Arnold Robinson, 22, of Chicago, the driver of the vehicle, apparently fell asleep at the wheel.

Robinson was injured, as were James Robinson, 5; Arlene Butts, 3, and Shed Butts, 5, all of Chicago. All were reported in satisfactory condition at a Blytheville hospital Sunday.

State Trooper Carroll Gravett said McLaughlin was thrown through the window of his department store delivery truck Friday after it was struck by an automobile driven by

LADIES DAY AT COUNTRY CLUB

Ladies Day was held at the Hope Country Club on Thursday, July 13 with Mrs. Phil Manus, Mrs. Wayne Johnson, and Mrs. W. C. Bruner, Jr. acting as hostesses.

After swimming and playing of golf in the morning, club members enjoyed a luncheon served in a setting of colorful zinnias. A chicken dish and fresh fruit salad were furnished by the hostesses, and the rest of the meal was potluck.

During bridge in the afternoon, the high scorer was Mrs. Lex Helms, Jr., and the game prize went to Mrs. L. L. Webb. Mrs. Jeff Wilson of Joplin, Mo., was an out-of-town guest.

LOCAL BRIDGE CLUB MEETS

Mrs. R. E. Cooper entertained her Friday Bridge Club on July 14, and she had honeysuckle and coleus in decoration. The two tables of players included three guests, Mrs. F. R. Moses, Mrs. Clyde Coffee, and Mrs. Garrett Story.

At the conclusion of play, high scorers were Mrs. Dewey Camp and Mrs. M. M. McCloughan. A salad plate and cold drinks were served for refreshments.

Coming, Going

The Rev. and Mrs. Gerald Trussell are returning to Hope Monday from a vacation in Shreveport and East Texas.

Dr. and Mrs. S. A. Whitlow, Little Rock, were Sunday guests of Mr. and Mrs. Jewel Moore, Jr., and family.

Caroline Cox, Washington, D. C., has arrived for the wedding of her sister, Jennifer, to Curtis Cheney, Jr. on Saturday.

A 2c Tony McLarty, Vandenberg AFB, Calif., is here for a military leave and to attend the wedding of his brother, Jimmy, to Sally Norman in Hot Springs on July 29.

Mr. and Mrs. Jeff Wilson, Jennifer Lynn and Scott returned home to Joplin, Mo., Saturday after visiting Mrs. Marian Holder, other relatives and friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Ross Bales, Mr. Robert Bales, Linda and John of Stamps, left Saturday for a visit with Gerald Lee Bales and family in Burlington, Wisconsin, and friends in Oshkosh, Wis.

Mrs. Gary Story had as guests Saturday, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Monger, son Jerry and mother Grace from Lexington, Kentucky.

Don't Cut Cuticles

If hangnails are a persistent problem, rub cuticle oil into cuticles daily and apply warmed oil to them once a week. Never clip fingernails or cut the cuticle. Instead, use an emery board to shape and smooth nail tips and dissolve cuticles with a crystal-clear cuticle remover.

Wax Build-up Is Culprit

Discoloring of a white or light-colored tile floor often results from floor wax build-up. Scrub the floor with very hot water and detergent suds. Rinse and allow floor to dry. Then apply fresh wax.

SKIING TO EXPO 67 will be a long haul for these five blonde, sun-tanned Floridians, who will begin the 2,500-mile trip along the East Coast Aug. 1. Starting at St. Petersburg, they will ski down the west coast of Florida, across the state through Lake Okeechobee, and up the East Coast to New York City, going from there up the Hudson River to Montreal. Towing the group will be a 40-foot houseboat, capable of speeds from 30 to 40 m.p.h. From left, the skiers are Cathy Austin, 12; her sister Linda, 15; Pat Markus, 27; Alice Roberts, 21, and Mary Fraas, 23.

Not Enough Light at War Confab

By JAMES MARLOW

WASHINGTON (AP) — There was too much light for the photographers but not enough to make clear what "as we feel it necessary" means.

The President had conferred lengthily last week with Robert S. McNamara, secretary of defense, Gen. William C. Westmoreland, U.S. commander in Vietnam, and Gen. Earle G. Wheeler, chairman of the Joint Chiefs of Staff.

Then he took them into the White House sitting room and called in newsmen and photographers. The photographers weren't happy with what they found. President Johnson sat on a chair and the other three men on a sofa by a big window.

There was too much brightness behind them for good pictures because the photographers had to shoot into the light. Even so, it was more light, in a way, than the newsmen got from the answers to their questions.

Johnson has always been a great believer in consensus. It was one of the reasons for his success in the 1950s as Senate majority leader. He was very successful at getting opposing sides to agree on some middle ground.

It seemed clear after the sitting-room session that perhaps Johnson's main purpose in calling the news conference was to get across the idea of harmony, that he and McNamara had agreed on sending more troops to Vietnam.

But there never seemed any doubt more troops would be sent anyway. The question still unanswered after the news conference was: How many? Neither Johnson nor the others ever cleared that up.

It may turn out to be a very delicate and critical question.

McNamara and Westmoreland had met a few days before in Vietnam where the general, according to reports from there, wanted more troops than McNamara may have been inclined to send.

Neither man, in Vietnam or here, ever revealed publicly just how many more men Westmoreland requested. But McNamara was said to have told the general he ought to make better use of the 460,000 troops already there.

Johnson and Wheeler didn't get into numbers, either. Johnson simply told newsmen all four of them were "in agreement on our needs." He didn't explain the needs. And Westmoreland said he was being provided with all the forces he recommended.

All this may have been intended to keep the enemy guessing but it is also an effective way to keep Americans at home from getting exasperated or indignant because too many were to be sent or not enough.

But from what Johnson and Westmoreland said you could get the impression the general was getting just what he wanted except for a phrase Johnson used at the very moment he was emphasizing the all-around agreement.

"Yes," the President said, "we have reached a meeting of the minds. The troops that Gen. Westmoreland needs and requests, as we feel it necessary, will be sent."

The President left unexplained what he meant by "we," whether it was an editorial "we," meaning the President alone, or a much broader "we," meaning himself, McNamara and the general.

Johnson did say 20,000 or 30,000 more men would be sent — they had already been scheduled to go — and more would follow. The big vagueness was about how many more.

Since Johnson is president, he will have the last word on what "we think is necessary" in the way of more troops. So, even though there was a "meeting of the minds" on giving Westmoreland all the troops the general thinks he needs, Westmoreland won't get them unless Johnson thinks he needs them.

But Johnson accomplished three things for himself while revealing nothing.

He gave the impression of harmony, whether there is or not; he avoided a rain of arguments for and against and free advice if he laid down specific numbers now; and he gave himself time to maneuver and suit himself about troops as the war goes on.

From his standpoint the sitting room session was worthwhile.

Congo Rebels Reported Located

by ARNOLD ZEITLIN

KINSHASA, the Congo (AP) — White mercenaries and Katangan troops who mutinied against the Congolese government are reportedly holed up in the vast plantation of Maj. Jean Schramm, their Belgian leader, in a tropical rain forest 155 miles southeast of Kisangani.

The mutineers who seized part of Kisangani, formerly Stanleyville, July 5 moved out last week, leaving it to the Congolese army. The army did not pursue the mutineers but instead started looting.

Mercenaries and Katangan troops took over Bukavu and Kisangani after news reached them of the kidnapping July 1 in Europe of their former leader, ex-Premier Moise Tshombe. Tshombe is now being held in Algiers, and Congolese President Joseph Mobutu's government is seeking his extradition so it can execute him.

Schramm, about 40, fought for Tshombe during the Katanga secession in 1961 and led a mercenary force when Tshombe was premier in 1964. A longtime resident of the Congo, he was among the mercenaries who remained with the army after Tshombe was overthrown.

Estimates of the strength of the rebels at Schramm's plantation near Punia ranged from 50 to 180 whites and from 200 to 800 Katangans.

Three U.S. Air Force C130 transports sent to Mobutu by President Johnson and two Red Cross planes evacuated 330 Europeans and Americans from Kisangani and were continuing to fly supplies into Congo troops.

Send your teenage questions to YOUTH ASKED FOR IT, care of Helen Help Us! this newspaper.

OVERWATCHFUL FATHER

Dear Helen: We have a daughter, 21, just finishing college. Since March, she has been dating a local college fellow. He's working his way through, and both are attending summer school so they haven't much time for each other. About once a week he takes her out, and other times he comes over "just to visit."

Here's the problem: my husband thinks they should be chaperoned, and refuses to go to bed until the boy leaves. It becomes an endurance contest, as my man doggedly watches the late, late show, yawning all the way.

I tell him a girl of 21 can take care of herself, especially since the young man seems loaded with honorable intentions. The few times I've gotten him to bed early, he pops up for a "drink of water" or to "check the front room windows" every 15 minutes.

What would you advise?—NOT A MOTHER HEN

Dear Not: . . . A tactful "Hang loose, Snoopy" lecture—and a sleeping pill!—H

Dear Helen: "Psychodelic" is a word that is batted around a great deal these days. To some it means "mind-expanding." To others, sensual pleasures in color and sound.

But what does the word really signify? Check the dictionary and you'll find that Psyche stands for "soul," and "dele" (from the Greek "delendre") means "destroy" or "cut out." Therefore, "psychodelic" means "soul-destroying."

Possible the "psychodelic drugs" were rightly named!—MADELINE

Dear Madeline: More than possibly — you're right!—H

Dear Helen: I thought I originated the "bet-pounds-off" idea, but see, via HHU, a teenager beat me to it.

However, I bet for higher stakes. For each quarter of a pound I lose, my husband gives me a dollar. I won five dollars last week, and spent the money for material to make him a sport shirt . . . which I am sure he'll wear to take his slimming wife to the lake. —LOSE TO WIN, MRS. G.

Dear Mrs. G: With your winning weighs, no one could lose in your family — even when you do!—H

YOUR HELPING HAND DEPARTMENT

Dear Helen: Would you please ask your readers to drop short letters or cards of cheer to Alice Scherf, c/o Alfred I. Dupont Institute, P. O. Box 269, Wilmington, Delaware, 19899. She had a back operation in January and won't be off the bed until September when she'll begin to learn to walk again.

You can imagine what it is like for a young teen to spend almost a year in bed. She'll certainly appreciate mail! Thank you. —VANESSA

Dear Helen: I want to thank the hundreds of nice people who have written to me since a friend asked that you include my name in Your Helping Hand Department. I've enjoyed reading every letter and they mean so very much to me. I'll be going home from the hospital soon, and with my Mom's help, I hope to answer as many as possible. People are sure wonderful! —DEBBIE ASMAN, 5604 Seifert Ave., San Jose, Calif. (home address).

Dear Debbie and other Helping Handers: Those who write to you don't really expect answers, for they realize that you will be deluged with mail. Don't try to acknowledge every letter. Instead choose a few for future correspondence. Others will be happy just reading that their efforts have made YOU happier. —H

Mets Dump Cards in Double Bill

By ED SCHUYLER JR.
Associated Press Sports Writer
Ed Kranepool had a hot time in St. Louis while Ernie Banks played it cool in San Francisco. And the swinging times had by these two first basemen Sunday were too much for the St. Louis Cardinals, who saw their National League lead cut to two games over the second place Chicago Cubs.

"I had a real cold spell after the All-Star break," said Kranepool after he turned hot with a pair of two-run homers to lead the New York Mets to a double-header sweep of the Cardinals, 2-1 and 5-5.

The 36-year-old Banks, who likes to play in San Francisco because "the cool weather here seems to give older-players a boost," hit a three-run homer and a two-run shot to help the Cubs beat the Giants 9-0 and 3-2. In other NL games, Atlanta edged Pittsburgh 2-1, Philadelphia trounced Cincinnati 8-0 and Houston swept Los Angeles 4-1 and 8-2.

In the American League, Baltimore nipped New York 2-1 in 14 innings, Washington topped Cleveland 4-1, Boston pounded Detroit 9-5, Minnesota took California 5-1 and 7-6 and Chicago split with Kansas City, winning 5-1 and losing 7-0.

"Fifteen homers for me is a good year because I don't have that kind of swing for home runs," said Kranepool, who connected with Tommy Davis on base in the seventh inning for his sixth homer to give the Mets their first-game victory.

Kranepool, who had gone hitless in 16 trips prior to the homer, singled in a run and then unloaded again with Davis on during a five-run burst in the fifth inning of the nightcap.

"To be where little cable cars climb half way to the stars," sang the jubilant Banks, who sent a ball all the way over the fence with two aboard in the first inning of the opener and then did it again with a man on in the second inning of the nightcap.

The Cubs had no trouble in the first game, Adolfo Phillips clinching it with a grand slam in the sixth, but they had a real fight in the second game.

Bank's homer was the only hit off Ron Herbel until Don Kessinger singled to lead off the ninth with the score tied 2-2. Glenn Becker forced Kessinger, but Billy Williams singled Becker to third from where he scored on Ron Santo's sacrifice fly off reliever Frank Linzy.

Jim Hart homered for one Giant run and Willie McCovey singled in the other.

Mack Jones' RBI single in the sixth inning snapped a 1-1 tie for the Braves, who had opened the scoring an inning earlier. Pittsburgh had tied it in the top of the sixth with an unearned run off Phil Niekro, who pitched a five-hitter.

Philadelphia sewed up its game with a five-run, seventh inning rally in which pitcher Jim Bunning contributed two singles, Bunning allowed the Reds just four hits in snapping their winning streak at three games.

Ron Davis drove in two runs in each game and Jim Wynn homered and picked up three RBI in the nightcap in Houston's double victory. Wynn's homer was his 22nd, and he boosted his major league leading RBI total to 68. Eddie Mathews hit his 501st career homer in the second game.

Whitworth Takes Ladies GOP Title

SUTTON, Mass. (AP) — Kathy Whitworth is one down and one to go in her major golf ambitions. The tall, tanned Texan won her first Ladies PGA Championship Sunday with a boldy stroked 504-foot uphill birdie putt on the 18th green. The sensational shot gave her an eight-under-par 284 and a one-stroke victory over Shirley Englehorn at Pleasant Valley Country Club. It also sent her into first place among women winners on the tour with $14,852.50 thanks to the $2,025 first prize. Kathy has been No. 1 in cash collections

14 Hope Boys in Little League Play

By RALPH ROUNTON
Star Sports Writer
State Little League tournament time is near, and the All-Star team from Hope, composed of 14 boys chosen by the league coaches, was announced between the first and second games at K Park Friday night.

George Frazier, president of the local Little League Association, made the announcement of the selections after presenting a plaque of appreciation to Bob White, Little League umpire for many years.

Midwest Dairy and Sheriff's Department, the two top teams in the league, each placed four boys on the team. Hope Auto and Barry's Quick Sak each had two representatives on the team, and Lions Club and Century Bible Class each placed one.

This team shall play first in the district tournament, to be held in Monticello between July 25-28. If they cop the district trophy, they return to Hope the first week of August to host the Arkansas State Tournament, to be played at K Park.

An All-Star team was also chosen from the Babe Ruth League, a team of 15-year olds and a team of 14-year olds. These teams travel to Sheridan tonight to play their district tourneys, with the victors earning a shot of the state title the next week.

British Boys Press Old Golf Stars

By THOMAS A. REEDY
HOYLAK, England (AP) — Three English youngsters who showed the British oldsters how to play golf last week stood out today as a genuine challenge to American supremacy.

Clive Clark, 22, Tony Jacklin, 23, and Tommy Horton, 24, trailed Roberto de Vlenzo, the 1967 British Open champion and Jack Nicklaus the U.S. Open champion, but not enough to do anything other than make them proud.

As a result, the British golfing public, has shifted its attention from the oldtimers like Harry Weetman, Peter Alliss and Bernard Hunt in the hope of recovering the 107-year-old cup for the first time in a generation.

Not since 1951 has Britain won its own British Open cup. Max Faulkner managed it that year. Now, Clark is challenging hard. With only one year as a professional behind him, Clark shot a 284, to tie Gary Player for third place.

Jacklin was right behind with 285. Horton had 287. This compared to the winning 278 posted by de Vincenzo of Argentina and the 280 that Nicklaus fashioned for second place in the championship that ended Saturday.

Jacklin, a surprising success on his first challenge in the United States at the Augusta Masters, is like Clark, working on the dedication which separates the men from the boys in modern golf.

Horton comes out of nowhere as well. What distinguishes this trio is what golf galleries notice. They are all disciplined, dedicated, quiet, genial in spirit, and well dressed.

They are a new deal in British golf. They're learning it from the Americans.

Senators in 7th Straight Victory

By DICK COUCH
Associated Press Sports Writer
Two weeks ago, lippy Leo Durocher and the Chicago Cubs had baseball's miracle market cornered.

Now Gil Hodges, Durocher's antithesis in the managers' guild, quietly has begun making magic atop Capitol Hill.

Hodges' Washington Senators, campaigning for a place in the sun after 20 dark years in the American League depths, reeled off their seventh successive victory Sunday, trimming Cleveland 4-1 behind Ken McMullen, a .238 hitter, and Bob Humphreys, a nondescript relief pitcher making his second start in two seasons.

Elsewhere, Minnesota swept a doubleheader from California, 5-1 and 7-6, and climbed within one-half game of the first place Chicago White Sox, who split a twin bill with Kansas City. The Athletics won the nightcap 7-0 after bowing 5-1 in the first game. Baltimore edged New York 2-1 in 14 innings and Boston trounced Detroit 9-5.

The Cubs, the New York Mets and the Houston Astros all swept National League double-headers, Chicago taking San Francisco 9-0 and 3-2, the Mets stunning St. Louis 2-1 and 8-5 and the Astros pounding Los Angeles 4-1 and 8-2. Philadelphia blanked Cincinnati 8-0 and Atlanta nipped Pittsburgh 2-1.

Humphreys, opening on the mound after 30 relief appearances this year, blanked the Indians on three hits before giving way to Bob Priddy in the seventh inning. McMullen walked a pair of homers—his seventh and eighth of the season—as Washington matched its record winning string as an AL expansion club.

The victory left the Senators one half game behind Baltimore's struggling 1966 champs and within 4 1/2 lengths of the first division. The last time a Washington club finished in the top half of the AL was 1946, when the old Senators wound up fourth in an eight-team circuit.

Humphreys, who blanked the Yankees for five innings in his only 1966 start, struck out four, walked two and permitted only one Indian to reach second base while boosting his record to 3-1 and lowering his ERA to 4.06.

Bob Allison pinch hit a three-run homer for Minnesota in the first game and smacked a two-run seventh inning shot that tied the nightcap 6-6 before Rich Rollins' leadoff homer in the ninth completed the Twins' sweep.

Rollins connected off reliever Ken Turner, who also was a victim of Allison's decisive blast in the seventh inning of the opener. Dave Boswell stopped the Angels on four hits in the first game and reliever Al Worthington was the nightcap winner.

Southpaw Paul Lindblad earned the A's a split at Chicago by firing a three-hitter in his first complete game of the year. The White Sox took the opener behind first-time starter Wilbur Wood, who scattered seven hits before Hoyt Wilhelm came on to get the last two outs.

J.C. Martin, Wood's battery-mate, knocked in three runs with a single and double, but bases-empty homers by Phil Roof and Rick Monday gave Lindblad more than enough support in the nightcap.

Tony Congiari walloped a three-run homer in Boston's five-run third inning outburst and Carl Yastrzemski ripped his 21st homer—high for his seven-year career—in the seventh as the Red Sox handed Detroit its sixth straight setback.

Curt Blefary's run-scoring double in the 14th lifted the Orioles past the Yankees, whose only run came on a second inning homer by Mickey Mantle. Brooks Robinson tied it for Baltimore with a leadoff homer in the ninth.

Travelers Defeat El Paso 5-4

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—Arkansas edged El Paso's second-place Sun Kings 5-4 in a Texas League baseball game here Sunday.

Tommy Smith clouted his 13th home run to give the Travelers a 3-3 tie with two away in the sixth, and Jim Procopio saved the game with a homer in the eighth.

El Paso's three-run first inning chased starter Fred Wall, but the Travelers tallied twice against John Messersmith in their half of the first.

Winner Sal Campisi duelled with Messersmith for five scoreless innings before Smith's round-tripper over the right field fence.

A walk to Biff Bracy, a sacrifice and a single by pinchhitter Art Deras gave the Travelers the lead in the seventh, and Procopio launched the eighth with his sixth homer of the season.

The Sun Kings picked up one more run before Joe Hamende retired them in the top of the ninth.

In other Texas League action Sunday, Albuquerque clubbed Dallas-Fort Worth 8-0, and league-leading Amarillo routed Austin 17-0.

Arkansas moved back into third place in the league standings, 10 1/2 games out of first and 4 1/2 games behind second-place El Paso.

Finals Coming for Tennis Pros

CHESTNUT HILL, Mass. (AP) — Upsetter Andres Gimeno of Spain, the newest sensation of the pro tennis tour, meets defending champion Rod Laver of Australia tonight in the finals of the $25,000 U.S. Professional tennis championships.

Gimeno stormed into the finals with a 7-5, 6-2 victory over top-seeded Ken Rosewall Sunday while Laver advanced via a 4-6, 6-2, 6-3 triumph over fellow Australian Fred Stolle.

Much Hope for Olympic Track Team

By JERRY LISKA
MINNEAPOLIS (AP) — "This team will do very well in Winnipeg, even without some good sprinters. Who's going to stop us?"

That was the appraisal today by Head Coach Cornelius (Dutch) Warmerdam of the freshly selected United States track and field squad heading soon for the fifth Pan-American Games at Winnipeg, Can., July 23-Aug. 5.

Actually, the 47-member men's squad and 23-member women's team determined after last weekend's trials at the University of Minnesota won't get into Pan-Am action until July 29 — two weeks hence.

"This is a very good team, I don't see any weaknesses in it," said Warmerdam, pole-vaulter great of the bamboo pole era.

"We're missing some good sprinters—you know who they are, but that can't be helped."

Dutch was referring to such sprinters as Tommie Smith, Charlie Greene and Jim Hines, who for one reason or another, skipped the 17-event trials from which peerless miler Jim Ryun also absented himself.

Tavern Man Finally Wins Tournament

By ED JOHNSON
SEATTLE, Wash. (AP)—For a jolly, red-faced tavernkeeper who's been dabbling in golf 40 years, it was about time Verne Callison won another tournament.

He did it Saturday by sneaking an eagle in among a flock of bogeys on the tricky, 6,329-yard Jefferson Park municipal course, where giant Christmas trees hug tightly against dry, narrow fairways and you need a magnifying glass to find most of the tiny greens.

The 5-foot-10 barkee' who carries a proper portion of his 190 pounds around the middle, snatched the victory from the sweaty hands of Ron Stokley by one stroke with a two-over-par 72 in the final 18-hole round. That gave Callison—a month shy of his 49th birthday—a total for the four-day, 72-hole event, seven over par.

"I'm so nervous I can't hold my hands still," said Stokley when it appeared the 26-year-old second-round par buster from Park Ridge, Ill., would win it.

That was just before the easygoing Callison smacked a perfect drive down the 17th, a 493-yard, par ve dogleg, and banged a No. 3 wood shot about 235 yards and 12 feet to the right of the pin. His putt was true and had just enough pep to plunk easily into the cup.

An easy par on the 18th sewed it up, and Callison—the oldest player ever to win the Publinks when he took the title at Honolulu in 1960—once again is the oldest player ever to wear the crown.

The champ's steady, near-par rounds of 72-72-71-72 were too much for the younger early leaders who ran hot and cold. The earlier front runners, 20-year-old Mike Zimmermann of Kettering, Ohio, and Phil Torres, 22-year-old Alameda, Calif., truck driver, got onto a train of bogeys Saturday and couldn't get off.

Zimmermann, the leader after the second and third rounds, stumbled to a 79 and tied for sixth, four strokes back at 291. Torres had a final-round 77 and wound up with 290.

Seattle postman Jim Everham 40, was in the running until the last two holes, quitting with a 75 and settled for third place with a 289.

Callison was amazed at being the winner with a seven over par.

"I figured it would take at least a par to win it. I really didn't beat those younger fellows. They just backed up."

Brother and Sister to Defend Title

MILWAUKEE, Wis. (AP) — Nancy Richey and her brother, Cliff, were to defend their championships against a host of highly-ranked challengers in the National Clay Court tennis championships opening today.

Miss Richey, 23, after an unprecedented fifth straight women's singles crown, will have to contend against one of the strongest women's fields ever assembled in the 57-year-old tournament.

The field includes Mrs. Billie Jean King of Long Beach, Calif., the only player above Miss Richey in the U.S. Lawn Tennis Association's rankings. Mrs. King is fresh from winning her second straight singles title at Wimbledon.

Also seeking to oust Miss Richey will be Rosemary Casals of San Francisco, the third-ranked women's player; fourth-ranked Tony Fretz of Los Angeles, and fifth-ranked Peaches Bartkowicz of Hamtramck, Mich.

Cool Air to Continue Several Days

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Unseasonably low temperatures may be expected to continue for the next few days with the threat of rain on the upswing.

Widespread cloudiness and light rain combined over Western Arkansas Sunday to bring record-breaking low maximum temperatures to some points in that area.

Fort Smith had a maximum of 68 degrees, the lowest maximum ever recorded at that station in July. Monday morning's minimum reading also set a record low for July 17.

Maximum readings over the remainder of Arkansas were in the 70s and low 80s with Batesville recording 68 degrees.

Overnight low temperatures ranged from 54 at Fayetteville to 68 at Portland.

Precipitation is expected to spread eastward over the state by Tuesday as moisture filters in behind a weak high pressure system which is drifting slowly eastward.

The low predicted for tonight is in the 60s. The high forecast for Tuesday is in low 70s to low 80s.

Pastor to Be African Missionary

Pastor and Mrs. Gerald E. Schleiff, of Calvary Baptist Church, Hope, Ark., were appointed missionaries to Africa on July 13 by the Southern Baptist Foreign Mission Board.

Mr. Schleiff has served the Hope congregation since August 1965.

Born in Fort Smith, Ark., he moved with his family to nearby Charleston as a boy. Mrs. Schleiff is the former Barbara Robertson, of Monette, Ark.

Mr. Schleiff told the Foreign Mission Board that he began considering mission service while a college sophomore. Two years later he attended a mission conference at Southwestern Baptist Theological Seminary, Fort Worth, Tex. "There the question was settled," he said. "I felt that the call was to Africa."

Mrs. Schleiff said she began to prepare for a missionary career when she was a teen-ager. He received the bachelor of arts degree from Ouachita Baptist College (now University), Arkadelphia, Ark., and the master of religious education and bachelor of divinity degrees from Southwestern Seminary and also attended Fort Smith Junior College. She attended Ouachita College and Fort Smith College.

He was formerly pastor of churches in McKinney, Tex., and Greenwood and Mansfield, Ark., and high school teacher in Hackett, Ark. She taught elementary grades in Hackett.

They have a one-year-old son, John Mark.

Rev. and Mrs. Gerald E. Schleiff, new Southern Baptist missionaries to Africa, discuss their plans with an employee of the Foreign Mission Board's press office. The Schleiffs reside at 1201 W. Seventh St., Hope. They were among 47 persons given overseas assignments during the board's July meeting.

Boys Camp Is Set Up at Robinson

NORTH LITTLE ROCK (AP) — An Arkansas Young Citizens Camp, patterned after the American Legion's Boys State and sponsored by the state Office of Economic Opportunity, opened at Camp Robinson here Sunday for 588 boys drawn from the ranks of Arkansas' low-income families.

Gov. Winthrop Rockefeller toured the camp, the first of its kind in the nation, and said in his dedicatory speech that if it proved successful, other states' planned to follow Arkansas' lead.

Gerald Christiansen, director of the President's Council on Youth Opportunity, represented Vice President Hubert H. Humphrey at the dedication ceremonies and extended the vice president's congratulations to Arkansas for being the first state to instigate such a program.

Christiansen said Humphrey had wanted to attend the dedication, but that "important business" kept him away.

Humphrey spoke recently on the need for such camps, and was told by state OEO Director Glen Jermstad that Arkansas already had established one.

The two-week encampment will be followed by one for underprivileged girls.

Buckpasser Preps for Aqueduct

By TED MEIER

Associated Press Sports Writer

Buckpasser takes over the spotlight again this week in thoroughbred racing.

The Ogden Phipps' 4-year-old colt tries to sweep the handicap triple by winning the $100,000 Brooklyn Handicap at Aqueduct on Saturday as another step towards gaining Horse of the Year honors for the second straight year.

The other two races in the handicap triple are the Metropolitan and the Suburban.

The Suburban was the race in which Buckpasser, apparently beaten, made a big run in the stretch to beat Ring Twice at the wire.

Dr. Fager, Damascus and Native Diver turned in standout performances last Saturday.

Dr. Fager set a track record of 1:48 1-5 in winning the $85,000 Rockingham Special by 4 1/4 lengths over Reason To Hail at Rockingham Park. Damascus circled the field from last place and won the $83,350 Dwyer Handicap at Aqueduct by three-quarters of a length over Favorable Turn.

Native diver, an 8-year-old gelding, won the $162,100 Hollywood Gold Cup at Hollywood Park for the third straight year with a five length margin over the favored Pretense.

Handsome Boy beat the favored Amberoid by 2 1/2 lengths in the $112,400 Haskell Handicap at Monmouth Park. Stupendous took the $55,400 Arlington Handicap at Arlington Park.

Sir Thomas Lipton was identified with the sport of yacht racing.

Vietnam Is Big Mystery to Observers

By RELMAN MORIN

AP Special Correspondent

NEW YORK (AP)—Since 1962, Secretary of Defense Robert S. McNamara has gone to South Vietnam nine times and after each visit a statement was issued on the war as it appeared then and an official estimate of the future course of events.

A vast difference stands between the first and ninth statements. It indicates three things:

1. The ability of the Vietnamese—demonstrated repeatedly in 2,000 years—to confound their enemies.
2. Misplaced optimism in Washington.
3. The problem of how much to report about the war and how frankly to report it.

Military men usually claim they must fog over the facts, or not state them at all, so as not to reveal information of value to the enemy, and to avoid damaging the morale of troops in the field and civilians at home. For example, in 1963 the New York Times quoted an official as saying, "I admit the press was sometimes lied to in Saigon in the past, but that does not mean that lying has continued and that the official word can never be taken at face value."

In any event, here are the nine statements issued following McNamara's trips and the events that followed:

1962—After a visit of two weeks, the secretary said the United States had "no plan for introducing combat forces into South Vietnam." He said he was "tremendously encouraged" by developments there. American forces then amounted to 8,000 men.

President John F. Kennedy defined their role as "training and transportation, and we are assisting in every way we properly can the people of South Vietnam." He touched on the problem of official disclosures in saying, "This is an area where there is a good deal of danger and it's a matter of information."

In October, six months later, American troop strength rose to 10,000. More significantly, they no longer were engaged solely in "training and transportation." Correspondents noted that the soldiers were firing first and not merely returning enemy fire.

1963—On Oct. 2, after a survey in Vietnam, McNamara and Gen. Maxwell D. Taylor reported to Kennedy. The White House then issued a statement which said:

"(They) reported their judgment that the major part of the U.S. military task can be completed by the end of 1965, although there may be a continuing requirement for a limited number of U.S. training personnel."

"They reported that by the end of this year the U.S. program for training should have progressed to a point where 1,000 U.S. military personnel assigned to Vietnam can be withdrawn."

Thai Hosts Summit Meet on Vietnam

BANGKOK, Thailand (AP) — Premier Thanom Kittikachorn of Thailand said today the government chiefs of the seven allied nations fighting the Communists in Vietnam would hold a summit meeting in Bangkok in October.

Thanom said the meeting would be preceded by a foreign ministers' conference in Saigon. He said the actual dates had not been fixed.

The Bangkok summit would be the second among the leaders of the United States, Thailand, South Vietnam, the Philippines, South Korea, Australia and New Zealand. The first was held in October 1966 in Manila.

Young Demos Would Lower Voting Age

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — Roy Lee Hight, president of the Arkansas Young Democrats Clubs, said Saturday that his group would attempt to place an initiated act, lowering the minimum voting age to 18, on the November General Election ballot.

Hight said he didn't know how many signatures would be required to bring the proposal to a vote, but that his organization would seek the help of other groups, including the Young Republicans, in getting them.

It was decided recently by the Arkansas Constitutional Revision Study Commission that the minimum voting age should remain at 21. The commission is studying the need for a new state Constitution.

The YDC executive committee also chartered a new Young Democrat Club in Dallas County and voted to stage a statewide Democratic Youth Rally in Little Rock next August.

Don Trumbo of Fayetteville, the YDC national committeeman, and Mrs. Judith Rogers of North Little Rock, the national committeewoman, were named as delegates to the Southern Young Democrats Conference Aug. 5-6 at Nashville, Tenn.

Old Hands, New Purpose

Mrs. Rose Seligman greases pan of dough.

Skills acquired over a lifetime, often wasted among the old, have been awakened to a new purpose in a Jewish rest home at Atlanta, Ga. Women residents spend Friday of each week baking "challah," a braided bread eaten by Jewish families at dinner on the Sabbath.Success of the weekly baking is evident in the enthusiasm with which it is done. The sense of dependency and utility which so many rest home residents feel is eased by the feeling of usefulness among the ladies, who prepare the bread for their families outside. The bakers include
Mrs. Kate Weinberg, 102, who bakes for her "boy," who is in his 80's. Some do the work at the table while sitting in wheel chairs. "Come Friday they're ready and a nxious," says George Landsman, director of program and development. "It's like being at home again, baking on Fridays," chortles one of the ladies, while another says nothing, just sings and smiles as she braids the dough.hold five spades but they were going to be tricks at no-trump as well as at spades."again. Thanks to each of you. Rev.

Smith, Director of Christian Education.

of legislation by noon.

The walkout by 137,000 shopcraft union workers completely shut down 30 railroads — virtually the nation's entire rail complex, with only scattered parts of New England and the South escaping the strike.

Nearly 400,000 commuters used to catching trains into New York City, Chicago and Philadelphia fought their way instead onto highways or simply checked into city hotels to wait out the dispute.

Most of the commuter automobile traffic into New York moved slowly but smoothly although police reported that on some highways traffic was three times heavier than normal.

In Chicago, the traffic snarl was monumental. Three major expressway routes into the city were torn up for massive repairs and even before the rush hour began, officials had predicted the worst jam in the history.

Philadelphia and other Northeast cities also reported automotive traffic considerably heavier than normal, but there were no insurmountable delays.

Secretary of Defense Robert S. McNamara said the strike already had interrupted the weekly movement of 1,000 ammunition-carrying freight cars to the West Coast for transshipment to Vietnam, and called the stoppage effect on the war effort "immediate."

"Let's not kid ourselves—we have chaos," said Secretary of Transportation Alan S. Boyd.

While some freights still rolled with perishables, hundreds more were shunted off the rails to icing and refrigeration points. The Southern Pacific Railroad rushed trucks to the San Fernando Valley and to Yuma, Ariz., to save the cantaloupe harvest. Officials worried about how to feed stranded livestock.

The nation's mail was affected. Postmaster General Lawrence O'Brien announced a general moratorium on second, third and fourth class mail to destinations more than 150 miles from the mailing point. O'Brien asked that first class and air mail be used only when absolutely necessary.

Guns Silent Along Suez Waterfront

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Some last-minute hitch delayed U.N. observation of the Suez Canal cease-fire line today but the Egyptian and Israeli guns along the waterway were silent for the second day.

Small teams of foreign military men were on both sides of the canal, making preparations to observe the operation of the new cease-fire that halted the air and artillery battles Saturday. But the Israeli government said the United Nations had informed it the cease-fire observers could not start functioning until "a number of questions regarding the Egyptian stand" were cleared up.

The semi-official Cairo newspaper Al-Ahram said the start of the U.N. patrols was delayed by continuation of talks in Cairo and Tel Aviv by Lt. Gen. Odd Bull, head of the U.N. Palestine truce organization.

AP correspondent Dennis Neek reported from the Israeli headquarters at El Qantara, on the canal, that Egypt had refused to allow direct communication between U.N. observers on opposite sides of the canal.

The Egyptian government announced it has informed Bull any Israeli attempt to move boats on the Suez Canal would be considered a violation of the cease-fire and Egyptian forces would immediately open fire.

The observers moved into the canal area after the third successive weekend of fighting following the June Arab-Israeli war and a new cease-fire worked out Saturday night at U.N. headquarters in New York.

Jersey Riots Switch to Plainfield

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Racial violence spread to another New Jersey city, Plainfield, after the outbreak in Newark, which had been so deadly 24 had been killed, eased Sunday night in the state's largest city.

Racial trouble at a recently integrated prison in Florida led to a fire Sunday night in which 37 prisoners were killed.

In Plainfield, a white policeman, John Gleason, was shot, beaten, kicked and stomped to death by one of several Negro gangs taking part in looting and marauding. The Plainfield injury list climbed to 12—6 whites and 6 Negroes.

National Guardsmen were quickly sent to the suburban city 18 miles southwest of Newark. Plainfield police, aided by state police, cordoned off the Negro district.

Police said mostly teen-agers had been involved in looting, rock-throwing and fire bombing incidents the previous two nights, but many adults joined the trouble-making Sunday.

The attack on the Plainfield policeman followed the shooting of a Negro who was critically wounded.

Newark, the scene of terror-provoking riots for five nights, was quieter, although sporadic sniping continued from isolated buildings and moving cars.

The death toll in Newark reached a total of 24 by early today with some 1,100 injured and about 1,300 under arrest. The cost of the five nights of riots soared past $5 million.

Racial trouble at a newly integrated Florida State Prison road camp led to the fire in which 37 prisoners were killed. Fourteen of the 51 locked up in the burning building were rescued. Six were hospitalized with burns.

The camp, an aging World War II type barracks located at Jay in the Florida panhandle, reportedly was destroyed by the flames in eight minutes.

An assistant warden said the blaze began when a fight between Negro and white prisoners broke a gas line and smashed a lamp which threw off a spark.

Violence involving Negro youths led to the wounding of Dennis Mathis, 28, a Negro who directs the summer antipoverty program in Fresno, Calif. He reportedly was shot in the arm and side Sunday by a bullet fired by a white merchant policeman as he was leaving a meeting where he had attempted to restore order. Police were attempting to learn if the shooting was accidental.

Another site which suffered three consecutive nights of disturbance—Hartford, Conn.—was calm again Sunday night for the second night in a row. Deliberate movement by the police forced an end to the trouble and city officials called off the state of emergency imposed over Hartford's predominantly Negro section Thursday night.

compulsory feature of President Johnson's proposal.

Rep. Harley O. Staggers, D-W. Va., chairman of the conference committee and head of House delegations, said "We are going to press for the very bill we wanted in the first place. I am still going to press for it this morning."

Congressional leaders summoned to the White House Sunday in the walkout's early hours promised to get antistrike legislation to John's desk by tonight.

Indications were that legislation would provide for a possible government-imposed settlement — a provision bitterly opposed by the unions.

But Joseph W. Ramsey, vice president of the Machinists Union whose locals began the walkout, said union national headquarters "would certainly urge respect for the law" if Congress acts.

Johnson used up his anti-strike powers earlier in the lengthy pay dispute between six shopcraft unions and most of the nation's railroads, so had nowhere to turn but to Congress for a new law.

The Senate and House each passed a no-strike bill this spring but a conference committee has been haggling about the differences for a month.

Congressional sources said the committee would be shunted aside and the Senate would pass anew its bill calling for a 90-day no-strike, intense-talks period followed by a government-imposed settlement if no voluntary agreement were reached.

House leaders promised affirmative action on that plan although the House earlier struck the government-imposed settlement provision from the bill.

"We've had a year of talk. It's time for action," said Senate Republican Leader Everett M. Dirksen.

"I am sure the Congress will act affirmatively Monday," said House GOP Leader Gerald R. Ford.

Newark Quiet First Time in 5 Days

By AUSTIN SCOTT

NEWARK, N.J. (AP) — New Jersey's largest city had its first night of relative quiet in five violent days Sunday, but gunfire and firebombs mushroomed in small, nearby Plainfield, where National Guardsmen were called in after a white policeman was shot and beaten to death as Negro gangs rampaged.

Trouble also echoed in Jersey City, where a group of teen-agers was scattered after smashing several windows with rocks and firebombs, and in adjacent East Orange, where police arrested three white men for firing from a car at a Negro boy.

Guardsmen stationed on ever corner along Newark's ravaged Springfield Avenue reported scattered but considerably subdued sniper fire after dark, and no more of the looting and fire-bombing that left the Negro shopping area a mass of broken boards and glass.

Three more riot deaths Sunday brought the Newark total to 24. A woman was shot before dawn, a youth died from gunfire while looting a store, and a 12-year-old boy was shot after dark. Gov. Richard J. Hughes said some bodies probably still lie undetected on roofs or inside buildings.

More than 1,100 persons have been hurt in the nation's worst racial riot since Watts in 1965. Property damage soared past $5 million.

Hughes said the 11 p.m. curfew throughout the city might be lifted Monday, and that collection might begin on the piles of garbage starting to rot in the cordoned-off Negro area that covers almost half this city of 400,000.

Hughes said all schools, liquor stores and bars, shut since Friday, will remain closed Monday, and suggested that all businesses except food stores, pharmacies and those supplying necessary services remain closed for at least another day.

Three persons were killed Thursday, 11 Friday and 7 Saturday. Only two were white, a detective and a fire captain.

The 5,000 guardsmen who searched cars and suspicious persons in the riot area Sunday would stay, Hughes said, until the snipers are isolated and order is restored.

He made no reply to a demand from leaders of three civil rights organizations for the withdrawal of all armed forces as the necessary first step toward law and order.

Johnson also directed Cabinet members to deal with problems raised by the rail stoppage. "Let's not kid ourselves—we have chaos," said Alan S. Boyd, secretary of transportation. Johnson ordered him and other federal officials to fix priorities for use of transportation facilities not snagged by walkouts. Secretary of Defense Robert S. McNamara said the walkouts "will have an immediate effect on the movement of ammunition and heavy equipment to ports of embarkation for Vietnam and on the movement of supplies and materials necessary for production to support the Vietnam war."

Surveyor 4 Hits Moon — Not Gently

PASADENA, Calif. (AP) —

Plans called for America's Surveyor 4 spacecraft to land on the moon — which it did.

But scientists questioned today whether it landed gently, as planned, or went down with a crash. The odds, they said, favor the crash. Surveyor 4 wasn't talking.

"Everything was going as planned. It just didn't go on long enough," scientist Howard Haglund said Sunday night after contact with the craft was lost.

Attempts to contact Surveyor 4 were halted at 1:10 a.m., today to be started again at 5:30 p.m. at which time the craft will be over the Goldstone tracking station, 40 miles northwest of Barstow, Calif.

"All we know is that Surveyor 4 is on the moon," Haglund, the project manager, added. "We don't know its condition."

The 2,290-pound craft was heading for what looked like a perfect textbook landing, officials at the Jet Propulsion Laboratory said.

Then, when it was about seven miles above the moon, all contact was lost.

Controllers went through the normal landing routine, shutting off equipment, trying to test components, but they got no response.

"It will take several hours at least before we can be certain what happened," Haglund said.

"There are many possibilities but one of those uppermost in my mind is that there may have been an explosion in the rocket case just before burnout."

"We can't rule out the possibility, however, that the spacecraft may have landed safely."

Other possibilities included a simple electronics failure, even a collision with a meteorite.

Scientists tracking the spindly looking, three-legged spacecraft

lost contact shortly after 7 p.m. just seconds before Surveyor 4 was scheduled to land in a rugged area called Sinus Medii or Central Bay, in the center of the visible side of the moon.

The proposed landing area, shown in photographs taken earlier in spacecraft, is known to be extremely rugged, marked by rocks, craters and ridges.

Scientists planned to photograph some of the rugged terrain, use Surveyor's hand-size scoop shovel and test the soil for the presence of iron.

Martins Go South
'Merger' Seems to

You always feel a preliminary Autumn chill when you check your purple martin box and find it silent and empty. That happened to me Saturday, June 15.

So the return flight to South America has begun — four months here, four months there, and four months for the roundtrip. These relatively small birds gather by the millions along the Gulf Coast and skirt the Gulf by way of Mexico into South America — where Spring will be coming as we usher in Autumn up here.

Your editor has been keeping books on arrivals and departure, at his two boxes beginning in 1963. A late arrival usually means a late departure, as with the current year.

With one exception the July 15 departure is the latest in five years, but then the martins didn't get here until March 29, the latest ever. Here is the five-year record:

1963 — Arrived March 21; left July 17 — very close to the dates for 1967.

Ever since this writer came to Arkansas in 1923 Little Rock has been trying to steal the University of Arkansas from Fayetteville, and the hand of the entire state has been against the capital city.

It was a suspect move, therefore, when Little Rock promoters a few years ago set up Little Rock University — and its true intent was disclosed just recently when the boards of U. of A. and L.R.U. announced they would recommend the two institutions be merged. The presumption is the Little Rock backers bludgeoned the Fayetteville board into making the announcement.

L.R.U. is a private school, while U. of A. is tax-supported, and the obvious message to Arkansas taxpayers is that instead of having to dig up constantly more money for one university we will be called upon to support two.

Of course the "merger" so far is merely a board pronouncement. It still has to be translated into action by the legislature — and I don't look for that day soon. This is one of the oldest political battles in Arkansas — the state as a whole against its ever-grabbing capital city — and imagine the voters are going to spell it out for the politicians when the issue comes up in the next campaign for the membership of the General Assembly.

The current situation is in deadly parallel with what Helena encountered on its Mississippi River bridge. The Phillips county people issued revenue bonds to build a bridge for their trade territory. Then they asked the state's taxpayers to take over the bonds — which the General Assembly refused to do.

Little Rock wanted a private university, and got it. Now it wants the state's taxpayers to foot the bill — regardless of the damage to the University of Arkansas which still needs more money than the state finds available.

Murder Suspect Freed on Bail

HOT SPRINGS, Ark. (AP) — Vernon Schuffield, who has been charged with first degree murder, was released here Saturday on $1,500 bond. Schuffield is charged in the shooting death Thursday of his son-in-law, Junior Phillips, 36, of Hot Springs.

Phillips was shot four times with a .32-caliber pistol while standing in the front yard of Schuffield's home, according to Carland County Sheriff Eugene "Bud" Canada. Canada said Schuffield lives about 16 miles west of here.

'Freckle-Faced Girl Next Door,' Formerly of Hope, Miss Arkansas

Sharon Ann Evans Wins Over 52

HOT SPRINGS, Ark. (AP) — The new Miss Arkansas is a freckled, 6-foot, brown-eyed brownette who says that her selection over 52 other contestants in Saturday night's finals of the Miss Arkansas Pageant is "beyond comprehension."

"I've always been the freckle-faced girl next door and I was going along for the ride," said 20-year-old Sharon Ann Evans of North Little Rock, who apparently will be the tallest contestant ever to appear in the Miss America Pageant.

Miss Evans, the adopted daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Evans, edged another North Little Rock girl, Pat Pugh, 21, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Vern C. Pugh, for the title held during the past year by Mary Luella Craig of Batesville.

"I think a great deal had to do with my height," she explained to reporters and photographers at a news conference Sunday morning. "When there is something different, people kind of notice it, and since I stood four or five inches above everyone else, there wasn't much (the judges) could do but notice me."

Miss Evans, who measures 36-24-36 and weighs 135 pounds, represented Ouachita Baptist University, where she will be a junior next fall.

Her runners-up, in addition to Miss Pugh, who represented Little Rock University, were Robyn Gannaway of Little Rock, Miss University of Arkansas; Charlotte Jean Layl, Miss Piggott, and Billie Kay Harder, Miss Fort Smith.

The five finalists were chosen from 10 semi-finalists. The others in the semi-finals were: Elizabeth Massey, Miss Malvern; Carol Diane Chowning, Miss Magnolia; Susan Burbank, Miss El Dorado; Paula Ruth Brock of Smackover, Miss Southern State, and Margo Gibson of Russellville, Miss Arkansas Tech.

Miss Congeniality, selected by her 52 competitors, was Jan Harrell, Miss Earle.

3 Admitted to Episcopal Order

At a formal ceremony held during morning worship yesterday Ron Endley, John Henderson, and Jerry Johnson were admitted into membership in the Brotherhood of St. Andrew by the Rev. Fred Hancock, Vicar of St. Mark's Episcopal Church. The new members were presented by Carl Howell, Director of the local Chapter.

The Brotherhood of St. Andrew is an international organization, sponsored by the Episcopal Church, of men dedicated to the spread of Christ's Kingdom through a three-fold Rule of Life of Prayer, Study and Service. Saint Mark's Chapter, which has been responsible for much of the growth of the local congregation, was installed in May, 1966 by Grig, General Hugh Cort of Little Rock, a former National Senior Vice President of the organization. Father Hancock, in addition to being a member of the local chapter serves as Chaplain to the Arkansas Assembly of the Brotherhood.

The Parish Eucharist was offered with special intention for the work of the Brotherhood and in memory of H. Russell Leonard, a charter member of the local chapter. The flowers on the altar were given by the men of the Brotherhood as a Thank-offering for the safe return of Mrs. Clyde Hill, and as an expression of their deep affection and regard for this older member of the congregation.

37 Die in Prison Fire in Florida

JAY, Fla. (AP) — Thirty-seven prisoners were killed Sunday night when fire triggered by a convict brawl swept a locked barracks at a recently integrated state prison road camp.

Fourteen of the 51 prisoners inside the burning building were rescued. Five were hospitalized with burns at nearby Century and one at Pensacola.

G.C. Mayne Jr., assistant warden, said the fire erupted when the battling prisoners broke a gas line and smashed a fluorescent lamp. A spark from the lamp started the blaze.

Mayne said guards ran for their weapons when the fighting broke out but returned in time to save the 14 survivors.

Pasco Rowells, a State Highway Department foreman who supervised the men at work, said the fight began between a Negro and a white man. He said there had been reports of racial trouble and fights between the 35 Negro prisoners and 16 whites since the camp was integrated last week.

The first fire alarm came at 10:42 p.m. Guard Cocker Nelson said the aging World War II style barracks was destroyed in eight minutes.

Rescue workers retrieved 35 bodies when the embers cooled several hours later. A reporter at the scene said 19 victims were found in the showers, where they apparently had sought safety by dousing themselves with water. The other two victims ran from the burning building and dropped dead on a lawn.

"The whole room was wrapped up with fire," Santa Rosa sheriff's dispatcher H.C. Crawford quoted a surviving prisoner brought to the county jail at nearby Milton. All eight unharmed convicts were jailed there over night.

"Somebody hollered 'fire,'" Gerold Milligan, the prisoner, was quoted as saying. Milligan said he was sitting on his bunk removing his shoes. Then, he said, the fire "swept the whole top of the building."

"They began to pass out," Milligan said. He said he ducked under beds and crawled toward the locked door holding his nose.

Just as he reached the door a guard opened it and Milligan escaped the flames with only his hair singed.

Rail Strike Grips U.S.; 1,200 Held at L.R.; Congress Acts

Government Moves to End the Walkout

WASHINGTON (AP) — A congressional committee met today on legislation to halt the nationwide railroad strike and Sen. Ralph Yarborough, D-Tex., said the striking unions and railroad officials "have forced the hand of Congress."

Railroad officials said the strike early today had spread to the entire railroad industry with all major lines tied up.

Yarborough, head of the Senate delegation of a joint committee long deadlocked over the legislation, said "We will get bill to the Senate and House by noon in some fashion."

The Senate-House Conference Committee met amid the spreading effects of the strike called by six shopcraft unions. The tieup snarled commuter traffic and halted shipment of much of the nation's rail freight.

The congressional committee has been deadlocked for more than a month in trying to resolve differing Senate and House bills. The Senate passed a White House proposal calling for 90 days of intensive efforts to reach a voluntary settlement in the wage dispute and a compulsory settlement if that isn't possible. The House cut out the

State Bar Turns Down WR Request

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — The executive committee of the Arkansas Bar Association voted Saturday not to honor Gov. Winthrop Rockefeller's request for it to recommend a referee for a hearing on his charges against the state Game and Fish Commission.

The group said it was not sure whether anyone other than the governor legally could hold a hearing on the misconduct charges.

The committee voted unanimously to advise the governor in writing that he should resolve the legal question before calling a hearing under Amendment 35, the amendment that established the commission as an independent agency and provides for removal of its members.

Rockefeller had asked the Bar Association to supply the names of three persons who might qualify as a referee.

Rail Strike Is Biggest in 30 Years

By JOHN VINOCUR
Associated Press Writer

The nation's biggest rail strike in 20 years virtually wiped out commuter service, cut ties between farm and market and partially blocked the flow of arms for Vietnam today. Chances for quick congressional legislation that might end the walkout fell considerably.

Senate and House conferees, who have been unable for several weeks to agree on legislation to prevent the strike, gave up again today on legislation to end the strike after one hour of talks and tossed the problem back to both houses.

Members said they still hoped however, to approve a bill by tonight.

The White House has pressed for such legislation and earlier in the day, Sen. Ralph Yarborough, D-Tex., head of the Senate delegation in the joint committee, had promised some sort

Do we, the citizens of Hope, want to stay "in a rut" with our inadequate streets or do we desire an improvement? That is the basic question which will come before the voters in September, the Hope Rotary Club was told Friday in a luncheon meeting at the Town and Country.

Machinists' Pickets Bar Trainmen

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — The Machinists Union strike against the railroads stranded some 1,200 Missouri Pacific Lines passengers in Little Rock Sunday morning when the crewmen of five trains honored picket lines at Union Station and the Missouri Pacific Shops and Yards.

The railroad made arrangements with the Contential Trailways Bus Line to get the passengers to their destinations, but some waited as long as 12 hours before they were able to get underway. Others cashed in their tickets, boarded planes or simply remained in Little Rock.

Two other major railroads, the Rock Island and the Cottonbelt, both primarily freight carriers, apparently were not affected.

A Missouri Pacific spokesman in St. Louis said pickets also had appeared in St. Louis, EAAST St. Louis and Kansas City.

"We are preceding to close down the railroad as it is picketed. If the entire railroad is picketed, the entire railroad will be closed," the spokesman said.

J. G. Sheppard, general manager for the railroad's Southern District, said there were only three pickets at Union Station at midmorning Sunday, while some 20 persons picketed the shops and yards.

The passenger trains arrived in Little Rock between midnight Saturday and noon Sunday. They were operating between St. Louis and points in Texas.

By 5 a.m., the Continental Trailways terminal was packed with railroad passengers. R. W. Bratton, a dispatcher at the terminal, said eight buses were sent to St. Louis Sunday and five to Houston. The bus line normally makes two runs to St. Louis on Sunday and none to Houston.

None of the airlines reported a rush for passenger service, but a representative of Delta Airlines said the airline's morning flight carried about 500 pounds of mail, as opposed to the usual five or six pounds.

Sheppard said some union crews that had come to work before picket lines went up at 12:01 a.m. Sunday remained on their jobs until their shifts were over, but that he didn't expect them back.

He said the railroad had about 2,200 employees in Pulaski County, and that most of them were union men.

"We'll have to assume that they won't be crossing the picket lines," he said.

Whites Flee From War in Nigeria

LAGOS, Nigeria (AP) — About 3,000 Americans and Europeans were trying to get out of secessionist Biafra today as federal Nigerian troops were reported advancing toward the rebel capital of Enugu.

Automobile convoys were bringing an estimated 200 Americans out of Lt. Col. Ojukwu's breakaway Eastern Region. Sir David Hunt, the British high commissioner in Lagos, told 2,200 Britons, mostly men, in Biafra to gather at Port Harcourt, Permission was being sought from the rebels to allow planes to land for lifting out the Britons.

When Ojukwu declared his region independent of Nigeria May 30, there were about 2,000 Americans, including 125 Peace Corpsmen, along with 3,000 Britons and 300 Italians living there. Many of them, especially wives and children, were flown out soon after.
